EUROPEAN TOUR 2025
PRESS RELEASE

▶ ABOUT US

Tango Il Faut began in 2010 with a fresh approach to tango music. Their debut album, “Tarde de Domingo” (2014), was supported by the National Academy of Tango, and they followed it up with “Avanti” (2017), which featured collaborations with guest artists. In 2023, they released “Agitando el Avispero”, that blends tango classics with innovative tango nuevo. Looking ahead to 2025, they will be presenting their new work, a 100% milonguero style album infused with a modern sound.

Since 2014, Tango Il Faut has toured 8 times across Europe and the U.S., earning recognition both at home and abroad. The Ministry of Culture of Argentina has twice honored the group as “Artists of Cultural Interest,” and their 2022 tour received support from the München Kultur Referat. In 2024 they were part of “La Locura” Tango Festival: one of the greatest tango music festivals in Europe.

For the past 15 years, they have been an active and vibrant presence in the Buenos Aires tango scene, performing at prestigious milongas, festivals, on TV and radio. Their collaborations with internationally acclaimed artists such as Sandra Mihanovich, Marita Monteleone, El Cachivache, Orquesta Típica La Vidú, Tempo Tango, Ache Rey, Julián Graciano, Moscato Luna, and many others have established them as a vibrant and dedicated presence in the contemporary tango scene.

FLAVIO ROMANELLI

Vocals + Guitar

Flavio is a versatile composer, arranger, performer, and teacher with a Master's Degree in Music Composition. He has studied tango with renowned maestros in Buenos Aires and has been an essential part of various tango ensembles, performing and teaching worldwide. He has also taught Orchestration at the National Conservatory of Argentina and founded TangoGuitarLessons.com in 2021. He is the tireless engine of the trio!

NICOLÁS FERNÁNDEZ

Contrabass

Nicolás is a skilled double bass player and teacher with a background in Classical music, Tango, and Jazz, studied at the Manuel de Falla Conservatory, EMPA, and ITMC. He has trained with leading figures in Argentina's music scene and has played in various ensembles across different styles, both as a regular member and as a sessionist. He has been teaching continuously since 2003. He is the forceful bass sound of the group!

MARCOS MARTIGNANO

Guitar

Marcos is a talented guitarist, composer, and arranger with training in Classical music and Tango from the Conservatory of Chascomús, the Tango National Academy, and SADAIC. He has attended notable seminars and master classes, and has accompanied singers across generations. In recent years, he has toured Europe and the United States, sharing his passion for Tango, both as a musician and a DJ. He's the craziest Milonguero of the group!
